1. The State Security Headquarters in Burgas faces on Otets Paisi and Aleksandrovsk Streets and is between Aleksandur Valiki and Slivnitsa Streets. It is housed in a 3-story, yellow color-washed concrete building, which measures 100 by 20 meters. The Troykata Park is north and the Kiril i Metodi Gymnasium is east of the building.
2. The Burgas Okrug People's Council Building is directly opposite the Burgas railroad station. It is housed in a 4-story, 60-meter square, brown color-washed concrete building. There are a statue of a man and a woman holding the "emblem of commerce" and a small park in front the building.
3. The Burgas Okoliya People's Council Building is located 30 meters east of the Armenian church and 100 meters northeast of the Preobrazhenye Gospodne church. It is housed in a 3-story, yellow color-washed concrete building which measures 25 by 15 meters and has a large balcony with an iron railing on the second floor.
4. The Burgas City People's Council Building is located in the center of the city between Nine Septemvriy and Aleksandrovsk Streets. It is housed in a 4-story 60-meter square building which is finished in white stone.
5. The Burgas Post Office is located 150 meters northwest of the new Burgas railroad station. Built prior to 1944, it is housed in a 3-story, 70 by 60-meter, yellow color-washed building. There are small parks north and south of the building.
6. The following sketch, showing the location of the Burgas State Security headquarters, was drawn by informant.
